Burglars Ransack the Rooms Where 15 Persons Are Asleep.

Diamonds. Jewelry and Prize Cups Worth $3,000 Taken.

The Robbery Not Known by the Family Until This Morning.

ISLIP, L. I., Sept. 23 .- The country house at this place of John Gibb, of the dry goods firm of Mills & Gibb, on Broadway, New York, was entered by burglars just before 1 o'clock this morning. Fifteen persons were asleep in the house at the time, but the burgiars worked so quietly that no one heard them. They got away with about $3,000 worth of jewelry, diamonds, silverware worth of jewelry, diamonds, silverwars and other valuables.

The burgiary was not discovered until 6 o'clock this morning, and the household was roused to a state of excitement. A hurried investigation showed that the burgiar or burgiars had entered through a window in the butler's pantry on the ground floor. The intruders were evidently posted as to the rooms where the jewelry and valuables were kept, which was on the second floor, and they ransacked every bureau and drawer in the different rooms.

ond floor, and they ransacked every bureau and drawer in the different rooms.

The sleeping rooms of the members of the family were on this floor, but the burgiars carried on their operations so noiselessly that not a single member of the family was awakened. In the room in which Mrs. Gebb was sleeping was the jewelry case, containing a quantity of lewels and diamonds of old and new design.

The valuables were in a cigar-shaped box, and stod on the bureau near the hed. The theleves took the case of jewels and passed into an adjoining room, where three silver cups were standing on a bureau.

One of the cups was won by Mr. Gibbs's son in a recent yacht race under the auspices of the Islip Club, while the other two were trophies won in Larchmont Yacht Club races. These the thleves carried away, but before they left the house they extended their operations into the dining-room.

A solid silver dinner set came in for theih plunder, as well as two overcoats which hung in an ante-room.

The local authorities are worked up to a high pitch of excitement over the burglary and efforts are being made to get on the track of the burglars.

Adjacent towns ave been notified of the burglary, and to keep a sharp lookout for suspicious characters.

There is no clue to the burglars.
